Richard A. Stewart, CFA, Joins Advisors Asset Management As Senior Vice President of Unit Investment Trusts

MONUMENT, CO, March 4, 2008 – Advisors Asset Management (AAM), a leading investment solutions partner for financial professionals, is pleased to announce that Richard A. Stewart, CFA, will join the firm as Senior Vice President responsible for all aspects of the AAM UIT business, including sales, trading and product development. Formerly the UIT Product Manager for UBS Financial Services, Inc., Stewart will be based in the firm's Princeton, New Jersey, office.

"I am very excited that Rich is joining the AAM team," Scott Colyer, CEO of Advisors Asset Management said. "The addition of Rich further solidifies our commitment to being a major player in the UIT marketplace. His extensive knowledge and experience will be key in continuing to grow our business and providing our partners with timely products and portfolio solutions."

Stewart, 42, began his career at Paine Webber Inc. as a Staff Accountant in the Unit Trust Department, progressing to a UIT Research Analyst responsible for portfolio surveillance and product development. Five years after UBS acquired Paine Webber, Stewart became the UIT Product Manager for UBS Financial Services, Inc.

Stewart is a member of the CFA Institute. He earned a Bachelors of Science (BS) degree from Fordham University's College of Business Administration in 1987 and earned his Masters of Business Administration (MBA) from Fordham University's Graduate School of Business Administration in 1992. Stewart is also a member of the New York Society of Security Analysts, and represented UBS as a member of the Investment Company Institute's Unit Investment Trust Committee.
